“ Ellie Conway

Trainee Accountant

I joined the firm as a trainee-chartered accountant in September 2020, after completing my Bachelors of Business and Law. HLB Ireland was the perfect fit for me as it allowed me to work with a diverse range of clients from pharmaceutical, educational institutes, and property management to the entertainment industry, to name a few. I'm also interested in the opportunity to work internationally within the firm's global network.

Trainee Accountant

Working directly with the partners and managers has helped me in my overall development in dealing with clients, resolving complex issues, and general project management. I was also able to get exposure to both audit and non-audit services, which helped me immensely in my professional exams. It's great to be part of the audit team led by our partners, who focus on offering valuable insights into the clients business operations.
